

Cycling the Peddars Way

- A - Alternative road route via bridleway through Riddlesworth Hall School, West Harling Heath, Bridgeham to join the Peddars Way just south of the A11.
- B - The footpath runs alongside the road on the field edge. Cyclists must use the road.
- C - Where the footpath leaves the road cyclists must keep to the tarmac surface and take the next left into North Pickenham village to rejoin the Peddars Way.
- D - Just north of Castle Acre the route runs alongside the road on a field edge path. Cyclists must keep to the tarmac road.
- E - At Fring Cross (ford) the Way becomes a public footpath, cyclists must turn left and follow tarmac roads into Sedgford left then right towards Ringstead. It is possible to turn right just past the old railway line and follow roads past Neat's Ling to rejoin the Peddars Way just south of Ringstead.
- F - North of Ringstead the path turns left along a field edge. Cyclists must keep to the tarmac road, ride down the hill into Holme next the Sea.

Note: the Norfolk Coast Cycleway joins at Ringstead.
